

Diploma

Master

PhD

An Introductory Infographic for Postgraduate Programs

بيت الحكيم

Program	College Implementing Program	A brief about the program
Master's Degree in Health Services Administration	Applied Medical Sciences	The program is eager to equip leaders in the health field who can keep up with change and accelerate progress in Vision 2030 AD. by hiring skilled instructors from the Saudi health field system and strengthening planning, organization, and supervising abilities on health facilities in the Kingdom.
Master's Degree in Surgical Internal Nursing	Applied Medical Sciences	By fostering students' academic and educational skills, knowledge, scientific competence, and values, the Department of Internal and Surgical Nursing aims to assist and provide for students and prepare them to practice quality nursing in the internal and surgical setting
Master's Degree in Management and Leadership in Nursing	Applied Medical Sciences	Through the courses offered, the program is committed to excellence in developing cadres in nursing administration and leadership who are both technically and practically trained.
Master's Degree in Clinical Laboratory Sciences	Applied Medical Sciences	The college's mission is to offer an academic program with a focus on clinical laboratories, to prepare graduates for the job market with the necessary skills, to conduct scientific research for the benefit of the local community while upholding the highest standards of quality, and to do all of this while utilizing the university's human and technological resources.
Master's Degree in Educational Leadership	Education	The department's objective is to develop top educational professionals who can have a notable and positive influence on educational institutions.
Master's Degree in Curriculum and Teaching Methods	Education	The department aspires to offer educational experiences in the areas of curricula and teaching methods in line with modern standards and trends, in order to prepare students who possess scientific and research knowledge and skills that enable them to contribute to addressing relevant educational issues and problems, as well as to the development of the educational process in the local, regional, and global community.

Master's Degree in Educational Guidance and Counseling	Education	The program's objective is to support the learner's personality development in all of its psychological, social, behavioral, professional, cognitive, and educational facets so that he may become a mentor and educational guide with the skills and in-depth understanding of individual behavior and the distinctions among them.
Master's Degree in Early Childhood	Education	By gaining leadership in the field of early childhood and offering high-quality services in the field of kindergartens, the program aims to develop an educational system.
Executive Master Of Business Administration (EMBA)	Administration Management	The department is eager to encourage fields of study in business administration and volunteer work. Additionally, it helps students get ready for the challenges of the global business world by providing them with the superior knowledge, abilities, and competences in the field of management.
Master's Degree in Public Social Services	Arts	To help the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia achieve its development objectives, the department trains competent cadres to serve in a variety of social service disciplines.
Master of Science in Mathematics Program	Science	providing educational programs and services that establish scientific research through research projects related to the program that provide community partnership for the community both internally and externally and meet the needs of the labor mark, laying a foundation for the doctoral program at the university, and preparing scientific competencies in the field of mathematics that achieve self-sufficiency for higher education in the future from lecturers in mathematics.